

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ALL THE LATEST NEWS

SULLIVAN IN TOWN.

The Big Fellow Looks the Picture of Health.

He Will Begin Training at New Orleans

His Recent "Jamboree," He Says, Was Greatly Exaggerated.

John L. Sullivan was seen to-day by an Evzn-ING WORLD reporter, at the office of the New York Ittustrated News.

The Boston Strong Boy has shaved off his mustache, and really looked in remarkably fine health. His towering, well-filled-out figure, with its massive shoulders, made him appear every inch the champion his friends claim he is. He did not seem to have suffered much physical harm from his recent bouts with John Barley-

Leaning back comfortably in his chair, with his legs crossed, John delivered himself as fol-

"I had intended to be off on my sparring tour "I had intended to be off on my sparring tour by this time, but I can't go till the Ashton-Lannon fight comes off. I shall take the winner with me to spar with. I want some man about my own size. It looks had to see a great big fellow boxing a little fellow. I think Ashton will be the winner. He isn't very far below me in size, and I think he is a mighty good man. "I shall not commence to train for the fight with Klirain until May 15. Seven weeks is ample time for a mam to train in. I shall go into training quarters near New Orleans on that date."

into training quarters near two diste,"

"In regard to my late alleged ismboree through New England, most of the stories are fakes. They are great exagerations.

"I don't deny drinking. I do drink when I want to, and it's nobody's business what I do as long as I don't interfere with anybody. I'll take a glass of rum if I want to, and abide by the consecuences.

the nonsequences.

'A lot of ministers once in Altoona got hold of me when I was on a sparring tour, and tried to convert me. They said if I would only go in the ministry I could exert a tremendous in-the ministry I could exert a tremendous influence.

I stood their palaver for about half an hour and was as amisble and polits as could be. But I settled them finally, when I was beginning to feel, thread, by telling them that every man had a right to do as he pleased. I said they were ministers for the money there was in it, just as I was a fighter for what I could get out of It.
Each man to his own craft.

"In regard to McAuliffe and Daly, I think Mac will do him if they ever meet. Moabliffe is the gamiest kind of a little fighter. I look on him as the finest light-weight in the world.

"In his fight with Carney he was sick. The way a man fights when he is sick is no criterion of his ability. In his fight with Meyer he had liever whipped, but the referee stopped the fight man again."

NOT A "MARK." IMPROVAT. TO THE EVENING WORKS, I Bosron, March 22. - Frank Murphy, the English feather-weight champion, writes from his training quarters at Beloit, Wis. : "Mike Daly and myself arrived here last Mon-day. We are stopping at John Uline's place, day. We are stopping at John Uline's place, and I can truthfully say that I never came across a location that suited me bester for training. A man who can't get fit here can't anywhere.

HE SAYS SPIDER WEIR WILL PIND HIM

'I am already within a pound of being at weight, and, believe me, I am in better condition and strenger to-day than I ever was before in my life. I never felt se confident of winning a fight as I de this time, and Weir will find out before we are in the ring many minutes that I am not as big a 'mark' as he has been in the habit of fighting."

The Murphy-Weir fight will take place either Thursday or Friday of next week.

DOVER'S CITY BUILDING BURNED.

And a Number of Firemen Injured by the Falling Walls.

IMPRCIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,1 Doven, N. H., March 22 .- Early this morning fire was discovered near the furnace under the court-room in the City Hall,

The flames destroyed the entire building, in which were the police station, City Clerk's office, County Commissioners' office, Registry of Probate, Clark of Courts, County Court-room, Registry of Deeds and Police Court-room. Hegistry of Deeds and Foliae Court-room.

The Belknap church property was badly damaged, St. Thomas's Episcopal Church was saved.

There were a number of casualties to firemen. Hugh Hanna was struck by falling bricks and had a check-bone broken; James Varney was badly burned; David Hammond had a foot crushed by falling timbers, and Samuel Abbott will lose an eye.

up to twelve months ago, when he was at-tacked by the illness which proved fatal.

FLUNG THE PRIEST DOWNSTAIRS.

Brutal Ast by the Brother of a Dying Man ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. NEWARE, N. J., March 22.-A well-known nature. priest of this city was sent for by Mary During, of Summit place, early this morning to administer the consolation of the church to her dying brother Michael, known to the police as "Mickey the Goat."

Another brother of the sick man happened into the room while the priest was at devotion, and before he could be prevented the man had selzed the priest and flung him downstairs.

downstairs.

His reverence would not make a complaint, but the police will arrest the man when they

Judicial Liquidation Wanted. INFECTAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. Paus, March 22. - The Journal des Debats announces that the shareholders of the old Comptoir d'Escompte will ask the Tribune of Commerce to summon a general meeting to ar-range for a judicial liquidation of the affairs of the bank.

There is nothing more thrillingly interesting than the condensed histories of Our Heroes and their battles to be found one in each box of Tunness Choss Cut CHARRETES. Be careful to secure the whole library. "."

Court, Passed Away This Morning.

a Fatal Ending.

Possible Successor.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, 1
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—Associate Justice Stanley Matthews, of the Supreme Court, died at 10.30 this morning.

He had been suffering from acute gastritis, complicated with other affections of the stomach and throat for some time. He was believed, however, to be decidedly on th mend until this morning, when he suddenly developed alarming symptoms and at 10.30 he breathed his last.

The death of Justice Matthews will undoubtedly postpone the marriage of his daughter with Justice Gray, which was to take place early in April.

It is thought that Judge Gresham is likely to be appointed to succeed Justice Matthews on the Bench, though the President cannot be confidently counted upon to make this WASHINGTON, March 22.-Upon the official announcement of Justice Matthews's death the Senate at 1, 10 adjourned. WASHINGTON, March 22,-In the Suprem Court, immediately upon assembling, the Chief Justice announced the death of Justice Matthews and as a mark of respect the court adjourned until Tuesday next.

Stanley Matthews was born at Cincinnati, July 21, 1834. He received his academic education at Woodward High School and then attended Ecnych College, graduating in the class of '40.

Eleven years later, his college course having been followed by law studies and his admission to the bar at Cincinnati, he was chosen Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, in Hamilton County. He resigned in 1853 and was elected to the Ohio State Senate the same year.

less, in Hamilton County. He resigned in 1853 and was elected to the Ohio State Senate the same year.

In 1858, he was appointed United States Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio, but he resigned in 1861 and entered the Ohio Volunteer service, first as Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twenty-third Regiment, afterward becoming Colonel of the Fifty-first.

In 1868, he was elected Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati, He resigned in 1864. He was a elected Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati, He resigned in 1868, he was a candidate for Congress, but Gen. H. B. Fanning was elected over him in the Second Ohio District by 75 votes.

He was elected to the United States Senate to succeed John Sherman on the latter's resignation, March 20, 1877. He took his sent in October following, and remained in the Senate until March 3, 1879.

His elevation to an Associate Judgeship in the Supreme Court occurred in 1881, he being appropriate the Ohio State Senate to Succeed John Sherman on the latter's resignation, March 3, 1879.

His elevation to an Associate Judgeship in the Supreme Court occurred in 1881, he being appropriate the Ohio State Senate to Succeed John Sherman on the latter's resignation, March 3, 1879.

His elevation to an Associate Judgeship in the Supreme Court occurred in 1881, he being appropriate to the Ohio State that, so far, no evidence had sent money into his country because it contained so many questionable votes.

Mr. Fish rose at the conclusion of the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speech and said that it was only fair to the speeker to state that, so far, no evidence had been adduced to connect him with the cell-ing frauds in a the Supreme Court occurred in 1881, he boing appointed by President Garfield. He had been nominated for the same place by Mr. Hayes, but the nomination was not acted upon.

June 23, 1885, Justice Matthews was mar-ried to Mrs. Theaker, widow of Judge Theaker. The wedding took place in New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthews sailed York City, and Mr. and Mrs. matthews sailed for Europe immediately after the ceremony.

The bride's former husband, who had died two years before, had been a Congressman from Ohio and Commissioner of Patents under President Lincoln.

Mr. Matthews had also been maaried previously, and it is to a daughter by his first marriage that Associate-Justice Gray has just become engaged.

marriage that Associate-Justice Gray has just become engaged.

The home of Mr. Matthews, in Washington, stands opposite the British Legation, is of red pressed brick, curious architecture and is worth at least $100,000. Guests at the house have been handsomely entertained by the Justice and his family.

Justice Matthews was a man of agreeable presence. He was of medium size, but inclined to become portly in his later years. His hair and beard were brown streaked with gray.

ray.

His most notable service during the war was accomplished in his restoration of order at Kashville, where he officiated as Provost-Marshal. He was also credited with the brilliant defense of a valuable wagon train from an attack by Wheeler's cavalry.

Mr. Matthews had been in vigorous health to to train rouths ago, when he was at-

THE NEW BUILDING BILL PASSED.

Mayor Grant received a telegram from Assemblyman Crosby this afternoon announcing the passage of his Municipal Building bill, which now goes to the Governor for sig-

Sullivan with Us Again. John L. Sullivan arrived from Boston this morning. He told an Evening World reporter that he would not go on his proposed starring tour until the Ashton-Lanuon fight took place. He will spar the winner on his tour.

Are you reading the absorbingly interesting story that the Morning World is now publishing entitled "A Voyage to Mars?" It is a wonderful account of life on another planet; everybody is talking about it. Commence reading it to-morrow (see synopsis of preceding chapters in this issue). It beats going to the theatre.

the Committee and "The World."

Was Sent to His District.

Judge Gresham Is Mentioned as His The Speaker Came Out of His Chair to Mrs. Harney Hears the Testimony To-Explain His Bank Account.

> SEPECIAL TO THE EVERTING WORLD.]
> ALBANY, March 22.—Speaker Cole came down from his chair in the Assembly Chamber this morning and asked the privilege of making a personal explanation. He had previously called Mr. Saxton, of Wayne, to preisde, Mr. Cole began by calling the attention of the members to the despatch in this morning's World, from Watkins, concerning the Speakers bank account and the deposits and drafts thereon during 1888. Mr. Cole declared solemnly that he had never received a penny wrongfully and that he had never profited in any manner by the ceiling fraud, if fraud there was, When the Committee had asked him for his bank books he had given them willingly, and told them that he would explain all the bank books he had given them willingly, and told them that he would explain all the entries.

He thought he had done so to the satisfaction of all the members of that Committee, but lo and behold they send a sub-committee up to Watkins to make an investigation.

"As to the statement that I deposited $10,000 during the past year," Mr. Gole said, "that is an impudent, malicious lie. There are several large entries, it is true, but I told the Committee what they were for—that they went towards paying the expenses of a very hot campaign in my county, where Gov. Hill was very strong.

"During that campaign the Republican State Committee knew that there was a very large number of questionable voters in my district and they sent me some very considerable sums. There were also leage amounts sent to me by gentlemen high up in the Republican party. The Committee, of which Mr. Fish is Chairman, has seen fit to lend itself to this persecution of me by the New York Woshlo. I know not why they have done this, but they have.

"Now, there is a statement in this Woshlo article about a draft of $4,000. Now, I am ready to show that the draft was not my personal property; that I merely held it in trust, and that when the time of the trust had expired I turned the draft over to its owner, and have a receipt for it in my possession. That will settle all the wild stories about that draft."

"This was the first time in his legislative experience," Mr. Cole want on, "that had ever will settle all the wild stories about that draft."

"This was the first time in his legislative experience," Mr. Cole want on, "that he had ever risen to a question of privilege and he sincerely hoped it would be the last."

The greatest attention was given the Speaker all through his speech, though there was a little hum of surprise when he confessed that the Hepublican Committee had sent momey into his county because it contained so many questionable votes.

Mr. Fish rose at the conclusion of the speech and said that it was only fair to the Speaker to state that, so far, no evidence had been adduced to connect him with the esting frauds in any way.

Brooklyn, to-day arrested a man whom the police believe to be Joseph Sulzman, the farm hand who murderously assailed Mrs. Ferdinand Mutter at Irvington on Wednes-

The man is about twenty-eight years old, of apparently German origin, and looks like a farmer.

He has fair hair and florid complexion.
In all these particulars he answers Sulzman's description.
He says his name is Anton Bueler, but he refuses to answer other questions.
His appearance shows that he has been out in the mud and rain for several days.
The Newark police have been notified to send on and identify him if possible.

MR. REID'S CONFIRMATION.

IT HAS NOT COME TO PASS, THOUGH SOME SENATORS SAY IT HAS,

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Washington, March 22.—Half a dozen prominent Benators, all interested, some adversely, in the nomination of Whitelaw Reid, declare most emphatically that he has not been con-firmed. firmed.
For some reason or other one or two Republicans insist that the confirmation was made resterday.
It was not.
The Schate will take the nomination up tomorrow and dispose of it.

LAST DAY OF THE HORSE SALE.

Rebecca Resold After Some Spirited Bidding for $500. The last day of the horse sale at the American Institute opened with a good attendance this morning. Prominent sales are as follows: Darney, three-year-eld hay colt, sire Castellar. dam Clover, $800; A. Miller, of Brooklyn, Hexameter, five-year-old bay stallion, sire Heptagon, dam Sweetbrier, $600; W. W. Ken-Rutland, twelve-year-old bay gelding, sire Rutland, twelve-year-old bay gelding, sire Waldo, dam Effic Dean, $300; P. H. Powers, of Brooklyn.

John M., seven-year-old brown gelding, sire Administrator, dam Mosv Rose, $375, J. Badger, of Philadelphia, Pa.
Mariette, seven-year-old bay mare, sire Kentucky Prince, dam Lady Burt, $610; H. W. McMahon, city.
Rebecca, a three-year-old brown filly, which sold yesterday for $450, was resold this morning. Bidding was lively, and the filly was finally knocked down to Geo. Scattergood, of Philadelphia, for $500.

Doomed to die, and oh, so young.

Is there nothing that can save
This poor, hopeless suffers reference an answer: 'Yes, there is:
'Favoarre Pluscementon' try:
It has saved the lives of thousands Who were given up to die.
For all 'female diseases' Dr. Plusce's Pavoarre Pauscaprion' is standard remedy, and no woman should despair of recovery until she like given it a trial.

Hebecca, a three-year-old brown filly, which sold yesterday for 6430, was resold this morning. Bidding was lively, and the filly was finally knocked down to Geo. Scattergood, of Philadelphia, for $5.00.

Spring Overcoats at Veget Brethers.

New and elegant styles Spring overcoats now complete, in a very extensive variety, ranging in price from $10 to $28. Broadway and Houston st. and 8th ave. and 42d st.

His Wife's Affections.

and Brings Suit.

Day, and Will Sue for Separation,

The Jersey City Court of Chancery, situated on the top floor of the First National Bank Building, on Exchange place, is a quiet little place; and there is going on there a very spley case, which the parties concerned are trying to keep quiet, too, Advisory Master in Chancery Joseph H. Randolph held court there this morning. In front of him sat Mr. Warren M. Coney formerly a commissary agent for the Pullman Palace Car Company. John Linn, his lawyer, sat alongside of him. Half a dozen yards away, with a cynical smile on his handsome face, was Mr. William Harney, a real-estate dealer at the corne Washington and Grove streets, Jersey City, and reputed to be one of the wealthlest men in town. By his side, regarding the proceedings with amusement, was a very bandsome brunette, with large, dark, expressive eyes.

She wore a dark red dolman, which was thrown back from a very pretty and pleasing pair of shoulders. A nest feathered turban was poised jauntily on her handsome head. This was Mrs. Minora Conev. Mr. Michael Newbold, lawyer, was near her and Mr. Harney, and earnest and freher and Mr. Harney, and earnest and frequent whispering consultations were had.

In the background were several witnesses, among whom was Miss Gertrude McDowell, a petite blonde, with a saucy air and defiance depicted on her pretty face.

Still further back, in the doorway, half concealed from sight, but leaning over to catch every word uttered by witnesses, was a large, stately brunette, her black eyes flashing ominously as they rested on her faithless spouse. Mrs. William A. Harney was her name.

ing ominously as they rested on her faithless spouse. Mrs. William A. Harney was her name.

On the 2d of April, 1885, Miss Minora Billow, of Renova. Pa., married Warren M. Coney, then commissary agent of the Pullman Palsoe Car Company. The caremony was performed in Jersey City.

The couple went to boarding, living together that way for some time.

Then they took a furnished flat at 84 Wayne street, where they lived for some years.

Finally a house was rented at No. 216 York street, and while Mrs. Coney went back to her relativee in Renova, her husband fitted up the house in fine style.

Mrs. Harney was the agent of the house. When the couple had settled snugly in the new house, of course Mr. Harney had to eall to see how they liked the house and what little repairs were needed.

Mr. Harney was blond and his calls became frequent. Finally, on March 3, 1888, Mrs. Coney left her husband and sued for divorce, alleging unfaithfulness. He made no opposition, and the divorce was granted in August last.

Now Mr. Coney wants $20,000 from Mr.

sition, and the divorce was granted in August last.

Now Mr. Coney wants $20,000 from Mr. Harney for alienation of his wife's affections. Kittle McDowell, the servant at Mrs. Coney's house, was put upon the stand this morning. Lawyer Linn questioned her.

"Was Mr. Harney a frequent caller at the house in York street?" he asked.

"He was," was the pert, short answer.

"How often did he call?"

"Oh, almost every day."

"Who did he come to see?"

"Why. Mrs. Coney, of course."

" Why, Mrs. Coney, of course,"
"Did you ever notice anything between Yes, I've seen Mr. Harney kiss her,"

"Anything elses ar. Harney has her,"
"Anything else?"
"Yes, he hugged her."
"Did she resist these kisses and hugs?"
"Not a bit." she pertly replied and the other witnesses smiled.
"You carried notes for them?"
"Yes."
"Where to?"

To a furnished room on the corner of Moutgomery and Grove streets, which Mr.
Harney had fitted up. They were written in little books and I used to put them in a bureau drawer."
'' Did Mrs. Coney ever meet Mr. Harney

here?"
"Yes, sir."
"Who told you so?" put in Lawyer New bold.

"Mrs. Coney."
"Mrs. Coney."
"What bappened on March 3?" continued to bonse and told m Lawyer Linn.

"Mr. Harney came to the house and told me to go to the store of Mr. Samuel Annis, 4' Montgomery street." (Annis is a large stove dealer at that number.)

Montgomery street." (Annis is a large stove dealer at that number.)
"You went?"
"Yea."
"Tell what happened."
"Mr. Anuis gave me an envelope containing $200. I took it to Mrs. Coney. Then Mrs. Coney and I packed our trunks and went to Tavlor's Hotel. Mr. Harney came there that night."
"Where did that money come from?"
"Mr. Harney."
Miss McDonald, in continuing, gave a very racy recital of the travels of Mrs. Coney.
Mr. Harney and berself.
They went to the Lafayette Hotel in Philadelphia, stayed there a short time and then visited in succession the West End of Philadelphia, the Continental, the St. George in in Brooklyn, the Sheridan House in Elizabeth, the Grand Union and Oriental, of New York, the Mansion and Pierrepont hotels in Brooklyn.

At all these places Mr. Harney was a constant visitor. He paid all bills, incuding the salary of Gertrude. The latter he also gave $100.
One night at the Lafayette, it was the salary of Gertrude. The latter he also gave $100.

One night at the Lafayette, it was the night after the blizzard, Mr. Harney occupied a lounge in the same room with Mrs. Coney and Gertrude.

Lawver Linn read several letters. One was from Mrs. Coney to a Mrs. Merritt, of 283 East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, in which she said: "If C, (meaning Coney) calls on you and asks if I was there the day before Christmas for God's sake tell him yes."

before Christmas for Cook of the Special Speci or Harney. Mrs. Harney declares she has heard enough Mrs. Harney declares ane has heard enough to day to warrant her securing a separation, and she will do it at once.

During Miss McDowell's recitals Mr. Harney and Mrs. Coney smiled and joked with each other. It did not appear to phase either.

The case is not ended.

A JUSTICE IS DEAD. SAD SPEAKER COLE. HE WANTS $20,000. SAVE THE POLO GROUNDS! CHICAGO'S DOWNED

Play Rounders.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
MANCHESTER, March 22.—The All America

won another victory to-day, defeating the Chicagos by a score of 7 to 6.

To-night the players are to be banqueted

The long course of banquets, receptions and rowd, and met the usual degree of appreci from the American players.

It is claimed that baseball is a direct descendant of "rounders," and the tourists propose to show how they can do up the father of their

A hard rubber ball is to be used, and the boys confidently expect to do the greatest kind of

GIANTS ON THEIR GROUNDS.

THEIR FIRST DAY'S MEETING AND SPLASH-

ING 'ROUND THE BASE LINES.

the Polo Grounds this morning.

All of the Giants who have as yet arrived in Gorman and Stoltz have signed with Lowell.

Danny Richardson has prepared a paper to be read before the Democratic Club, of Elmira The subject is: "David B. Hill for President."

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Mr. Edward Berney, a Retired Merchant,

Fails from the Window of His Apartment. About 1 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Edward Berney, a retired merchant of fifty years of age, accidentally fell out of a window in his spart-

Consistory of New York City, held last evening at Scottish Rite Hall, Madison avenue and Twenty-ninth street. The degree which re-

Architect Ellison's Insane Wife.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

taken to the State Insane Asylum at Trenton.

A New Civil-Service Board Secretary.

Gunther K. Ackerman, for several years con-

Stanley Matthews, of the Supreme | He Declares Himself Persecuted by The Figure Set by Mr. Coney for Postpone the Grading of 111th Street A Victory for the All-America Until October Next. Team at Manchester To-Day

again.

slugging.

His Illness of a Year's Duration Had And Confesses That Campaign Boodle He Says Mr. Harney's Got Them Now, Why Should Not the Great Baseball To-Night They Banquet, To-Morrow They Public Voice Its Opinion?

> Grounds Saved, Sign This Petition.

Forward It Without Delay to "The Evening World," and It May Settle the Great Question.

Now that both sides, petitioners and re spondents, have been heard by the Aldermanie Committee on the burning question, Shall the Polo Grounds Go This Year ?" isn't it the correct thing that the intensely interested public shall voice its opinion? rounders which is to be played at Liverpool to-morrow between a British team and one chosen

As the matter now stands the property owners about the Polo Grounds are very much divided as to the desirability of grading One Hundred and Eleventh street through the field this season. The owners of the grounds themselves and a large proportion of the neighboring property owners favor the postponement of that work until the close of the coming ball season, thereby giving the Giants the opportunity to play there this year and affording them plenty of time to arrange for permanent and satisfactory grounds for future years. Other property owners, who by no means show that they are in the majority, urge the immediate cutting through of the street and the consequent demolishment of the glorious ball field on which two championships have been won. The result of the application is dubious. Is it not eminently proper that in this emergency and conflict of opposing interests the great ball-going public should have something to say ?

Why not get up a monster pelition that shall show the great preponderance of public opinion in favor of retaining the Polo Grounds for this season?

Such a petition should certainly have great weight with the Board of Aldermen, and very likely would settle the matter for this year. Well, here's your chance if you want the Pelo Grounds saved. Sign the accompanying blank petition and get as many other people to sign it as possible, Forward it without delay to THE EVERING WORLD.

There's no time to lose. SAVE THE POLO GROUNDS. To the Board of Alderman of New York City:

The undersigned, residents of New York and vicinity and admirers of the National game, believing that it is not inconsistent with the majority of private interests involved, and knowing hat it is in accordance with the desire and sen ments of the great majority of the public, that the Polo Grounds shall not be rendered unfit for baseball playing this season by the grading of One Hundred and Eleventh street through the Hereby petition your honorable body that no action providing for the grading of said street through the Polo Grounds shall be taken until after Oct. 1 next, thereby enabling the Polo Grounds to be used by the New York baseball public and its champion nine this season and affording ample time for the securing of permanent grounds for use in future seasons. We base this petition purely upon public grounds, in the belief that the interests of the National game in the National metropolis merit the consideration and encouragement of the constituted authorities.

•	Like the second	Berney, a retired merchant of fifty years of age,
,	Residence	accidentally fell out of a window in his spart- ments on the second floor of Mrs. Capt. A. Hall's boarding-house, at 46 West Twenty-fifth
	Name	street. He struck on the back of his head, fracturing his skull and dying almost instantly.
đ	Residence	His unfortunate death will be regretted by a large circle of friends.
0 7	in the state of th
		American Turfmen's Congress.
8	Name	[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,]
П	Name	LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 22 The American
1	F	Turf Congress is in session at the Galt House
	20.00	here to-day.
i.	Residence	Those present are President Brewster, of Chicago, Green of St. Louis, Shaw, of St. Paul, ā		Perkins, of Latonia, Robinson and Davidson, of
a		Lexington, President Clark and Secretary
0	Name	Bruce, of Louisville. President Brewster represents not only the Washington Park Club, but holds the proxies of Denver and Kansas City. The work of the session will be the adoption
y	Besidence	and oublication of rules. The fight with book-
٠		makers will be discussed.
		It is not probable that the conflict of dates be- tween Nashville, Lexington and Louisville will n	Name	be settled, as Nashville is not represented.

n		Masons of High Degree.
4	Bushlanes	Many prominent Masons were present at the

HANGED BEFORE THREE HUNDRED. we Brothers Pay the Extreme Penalty for

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Sr. Paul, March 22 .- Pets and Tom Barett. brothers, were hanged here this morn ing for the murder of Thomas Tollefson, a street-car conductor, whom they killed in order to get his cash-box July 26, 1887. The excution was witnessed by over three hundred persons. It was the first legal ex-ecution that ever took place in this county.

The St. George's Harriers' Rus. The St. George's Harriers will have a moonlight run to-night around Central Park, start-ing from Seventy-sixth street and Fifth avenue. Members of other clubs are invited to attend. One Thing Money Can't Buy.

A very valuable ill intrated hiographica, work and criminal history has just been published by Meesra. D. Buchner & Co., under the site of "Defenders and Offenders," it contains finely executed colored pictures and biographical sketches of the police chievinh has pictures and history of all the notorious criminals of the country. The book is handsemely printed and elegantly bounds, and can be obtained only by sending 200 of any of the pictures packed in One of the Fuerst tochappe to the undee of the manufacturers. "S Chloago - - - - - 6 The A-mer-e-Kah Handicap, by a Head, at Clifton.

> Carnot, with Farris Up, Paid $40.40 in the Mutuels.

visits to notable places would be enough to tire any ordinary tourist, but the ball-tousers even The Track Was Sloppy, but Not Holdseem to improve in condition under it all.

Their playing to-day was witnessed by a large ing or Slow.

day, and it was a great relief over what they endured at Guttenburg yesterday. The track was sloppy, but not holding or very

The first race was won by Bay Ridge, with Satisfaction, the favorite, second. The latter should have won easily had her rider, Rifleshine, used better . judgment. Savage was also ridden

Speedwell was supposed to be a real good thing for the second race, but Carnot, who has been worked on the quiet, jumped out and won easily, with the odds of 5 to 1 against him; and town, with the exception of Keefe, Ewing and Foster, were assembled in their club-house at ished as named. Ernest winning by a head. FIRST BACE.

SECOND RACK.

George Toffling, shortstop of last year's Lowell team, and this year with St. Joseph, has fallen heir to a legacy of $3,500. George Gore strained the muscles of his leg quite severely during symnasium exercise a few days ago, but is now out and without a cane.

J. Frank Turner, pitcher, and Mike Hines, catcher, have signed with Easton. Turner is a graduate of Amherst College and a pupil of Tim Reets. Hines was Jim Whitney's catcher in won a good race by about a head from Prodigal, who beat Pegasus two lengths. Betting—7 to 5 against Ernest to win; 2 to 1 on fors place, and 5 to 4 on Prodigal for s place. Mutuels paid: Straight, $5,75; for a place, $2,55. Prodigal paid $2,70. The steamer Saale and John M. Ward are due to-day. Beveral of the New York players to-day expressed the belief that there wouldn't be the ghost of a kick for the President of the Brotherhood to make.

hood to make.

A well-known ball-player said to-day: "John Ward will play with the New York Club this season and never intended to go anywhere else."

Titcomb, Slattery, Gore and Richardson were downtown this afternoon and expressed great ratisfaction at the People's Petition started to-day by The Evening World. FOURTH BACK.

Was won by Free Lance.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
NORTH HUDSON DRIVING PARK, N. J., March 22.—Here are the Guttenburg entries and prob-

Here are the New Orleans entries for Saturday, was the twentieth, Grand Master Ad Vitam, which was conferred in full form, with all the new fine costomes and properties made specially for this event. The degree required for its portrayal forty-five brethien in full costome, with a double quintet, two organists, a trombonist and a cornetist. It was beautifully and magnificantly rendered and much ability was displayed. REVPORT, N. J., March 22, -Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ellison, wife of Garrett Elitson, an architect and prominent citizen of Keyport, was For some time past she had showed signs of insanity. At one time Mr. Ellison smelt some rars burning, and going to her room, found her sitting on the fire. He took her off, but she was badly burned.

An Underground Plat Baffied, Corporation Counsel Beekman to-day got an

ALL THE LATEST NEW

ALAN ARCHER WINS

REPRESAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.1 CLIPTON RACE TRACE, N. J., March 22,—The ace-goers enjoyed fine weather at Clifton to-badly, and the crowd were somewhat disgusted over the race, as they thought it had a suspicious he paid $40,40 in the mutuels.

Ernest was the favorite for the third race. with Prodigal a good second choice, and they fin-

The boys were clad in sweaters and goloshes, prepared to take their medicine in the shape of a half hour's run around the once cinder, but now slimb covered track on the grounds.

It was their first meeting on the grounds since the adjournment of last Fall, and the stories, true and otherwise, of the Winter's experience were many, varied and not told for publication.

Little George was plied with questions about his losing himself all the Winter, but he indiginantly denied the charge and sought to prove his presence in Bellair during the Winter by reading selections from three letters received since his arrival here, all written in the same delicate chirography.

After the little pitcher had had sufficient time to bury his blushes all the members of the team went out on the grounds for the day's run, but one slumpy, splashy spin about the muddy track was sufficient, and beek they came to the clubliouse, uttering anathemas upon the state of the grounds and threatening to strike if Manager Mutrie again attempted to change ball-players to a boat's crew. The boys were clad in sweaters and goloshes, THIRD BACK. Purse $500; selling allowances; one mile ran.

The Race.—Ernest led from start to finish and won a good race by about a head from Prodigal, Cinttenburg Entries for Saturday.

NORTH HUBON DRIVING PARK, N. J., March 22. —Here are the Guttenburg entries and probable starters for Saturday, March 23:

First Race.—Purse $200. for beatan horses; three-guarters of a mile.—Songeter, 125; Tention, 125; Suttor, 125, Marshall A. 125; Glendon, 122; Pat Oakley, 121; John Finn, 122; Glendon, 122; Warren 122; Jim Bradt, 124; Warder, 122; ib.

Sond Race.—Purse $200; selling allowances; cas mis-and a sisteenth.—Harrodsburg, 108; Vigiland, 106; Oakorn, 106; Lottery, 106; Geo. Angus, 102; Soine, 122; Capstone 84 lb.

Third Race.—Purse $200; for maidens; five-aighths of a mile.—Montana, 116; Glenduce, 116; Dake of Chervell, 116; Light Whys, 116; Calmer, 119; Jack Higk-aves, 100; Hollescod, 100; Beb Wallace, 100; Kanta, 98; King Alfonto file, 198 lb.

Fourth Race.—Purse $300; seven-sighths of a mile.—Carnegie, 110; Lord Beacoundield, 119; Rishop, 119; Foundain, 116; Landsser, 116; Tom Karna, 116; Boodis, 113; Melwood, 102; lb.

Fitch Race.—Purse $200 selling allowances; six and one-half, furious .—Bounybrook, 119; Carlow, 113; Johnine E. 113; Pandenie, 113; Cart Tell, 12; Julia Miller, 111; Sainda, 114; Rase Viol, 110; Pewershorg, 107; Bonnie Park filly, 105; Beacon, 101; Lis, 91; Ids Bell, 88 lb.

Sixth Race.—Purse $200; selling allowances; seranceighths of a mile:—Hallen, 129; Hawra, 124; Haitston, 123; Tunis, 121; Black Prince, 121; Henry B. 114. Menter, 121; Judage Norton, 119; Vaultor, 119; Ids West, 110; Tosor, 118; King B., 110 lb.

New Orleans Entries for Saturday. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) NEW ORLEANS RACE TRACE. N. J., March 22. -

Here are the New Orleans entries for Saturday, March 23:

First Race-Selling allowances: five furlongs.—Dutchman, 101. Occition, 108. Celifernia, 104; St. Simon, 104. Celifernia, 104; St. Simon, 104. Celifernia, 105; School, 105. Celifernia, 107; Lota, L. Lota, 108. Vettell, 107; Mark T. 100; Lota, 108. Vettell, 107; Mark T. 100; Lota, 108. Vettell, 107; Mark T. 100; Lota, 108. Third Race-selling allowances: six fortengs.—Stuart, 110. Dubine, 108; Duchess May, 104; Henry Hardy, 104. Machurit, 105; Duches May, 104; Henry Hardy, 104. Woldboy, 108; Dan Meska, 102; Macaulto, 104; Macaulto, 104; Macaulto, 106; Dan Meska, 102; Macaulto, 106; Month Race-Handicap; seven forlongs.—Tudor, Yourth Race-Handicap; seven forlongs.—Tudor, 100 lb.
Fourth Race - Handicap; seven furlongs. - Tudor, 115; Hornolpe, 100; Morns, 105; Lemes, 100;
Myurns, 100; Probus, 05; Santa Cruz, 90; b.

injunction from Judge Gorman which baffles the New York City Centra Underground! Rallroad Company in an attempt it is just now making to assert a right to tunnel the city under the old "Yandenburgh Charter," granted in 1868.

The city insists that the right no longer exists, and the injunction stops all action until the question is settled. nected with the business office of the Star, has been appointed by the Mayor Secretary of the Civil-Service Board in place of Lee Phillips, removed. The salary of the position is $4,500. Mr. Ackerman takes office April 1.

¥. _ Tosh
onicomess, Leuand
elleni
and ginta

S

ALD